

Client / Artist Commission Contract

www.angryrobotscosplay.com

Congratulations, the Angry Robots have accepted your commission request! In order to provide you with the best product we can, we ask that you please fill out this form so that we both know what is expected of each other and this process may go as smoothly as possible.

This section to be completed by the Angry Robots

The Angry Robots agree to complete your commissioned project based on the following criteria. We promise to always do our best to create quality products for our clients.

Project Description: _____

Target Completion Date: _____

Project Hours Estimate: _____

Labor Cost (Hours x $12): _____

Materials Cost: _____

Rush Fee (If applicable): _____

Total Cost Estimate: _____

(Total cost is based on estimated hours + materials cost, which is why it is shown as a range. This does not include shipping which will be based on weight)

Artist Signature _____

This section to be completed by the Client

- I the commissioner understand that I am expected to pay the Materials Cost, which is non-refundable, before the start of the project.
- I understand that the Labor Cost and Shipping is due within two months of completion of the project. If I do not pay it within that time, Angry Robots Cosplay has the right to reclaim and sell the commissioned item.
- Angry Robots are not responsible for items lost or damaged in shipping, and I am aware that I have 3 days to ship back damaged items if I want them repaired free of charge. Shipping is always paid by the client.

Client Signature _____